

Introduction for Kari Berit

/pronounced CAR-ee BEAR-it /

I am thrilled to introduce Kari Berit as our keynote speaker this morning/afternoon/evening.

Her topic today is: _____

Kari is in demand as a speaker in the field of aging and family caregiving. She speaks nationwide, addressing professionals and families who crave emotional support and a down-to-earth approach to the issues of family & professional caregiving.

Her education includes a BA in Psychology and Norwegian from St. Olaf College, a Master's Degree in Continuing and Vocational Education from the University of WI, Madison, and over 25 years designing and teaching programs for older adults. Kari has worked 13 years as a resident manager, dementia care specialist, activity and housing director for numerous senior housing communities.

In addition to speaking nationwide, Kari is an author, blogger, past radio show host, and leads creative tours to Norway.

As a guest speaker for industry associations and private business groups, Kari has instructed thousands—nationwide—on living full engaged throughout life.

Please join me in welcoming Kari Berit!